Session 1006
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

Jason Maloy, State Farm Insurance

Austin, TX • June 8 – 10, 2016
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

- Introduce a new learning approach
- Tools already available for creating video
- “Learning culture” In the workflow
- Address learning & performance gaps
- Reduce cost & time to production
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

- Leadership support
- Partnerships
- C.O.L.E.

Introduce a new learning approach
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

Tools already available for creating video

- Resources Constraints
- Limited tool support
- Sustainable
“Learning culture”
In the workflow

• Collaborative Community
• Bi-weekly skilling sessions
• Monthly COPs
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

- Address learning & performance gaps
- Financial Services
- Executive Leadership
- Application skilling
Video on Demand:
Keeping Success in the Workflow

- Diversity and Inclusion
- Digital Collaboration
- Claims Curriculum

Reduce cost & time to production
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

- Introduce a new learning approach
- Tools already available for creating video
- “Learning culture” In the workflow
- Address learning & performance gaps
- Reduce cost & time to production
Video on Demand: Keeping Success in the Workflow

Jason.Maloy.IBT0@StateFarm.com